Photographs and Videotaping of Clients for Public Relations and Fundraising

It is the policy of Hempstead Chamber of Commerce that the use of photographs and videotapes of persons served, including on the Internet, with or without his/name attached requires informed voluntary written consent.

Written consent is the completed form "Permission to Use Photograph or Videotape for Public Relations or Fundraising." Due to the nature of client confidentiality, no past or current client will be required or coerced to provide public statements of gratitude to Hempstead Chamber of Commerce. All public statements are strictly voluntary. In all cases, client confidentiality supersedes any public relations or fundraising benefits.
